Dick and Ruth Robinson

Dick and Ruth will be sharing with us today. We are missionaries in the jungle of Peru. We developed program for training indigenous leaders and pastors in Orality, a methodology that involves teaching the Word of God as spoken, chronological stories from the scriptures. This is also known as Narrative Theology. We started our work in 2013 in the District of Tahuania, far upriver the city of Pucallpa where we live and have our mission center. The evangelical churches of Tahuania were dead or weak, most villages had no evangelical churches and the Catholic church was not present in the villages. At present our organization is recognized by the Shipibo Conibo Evangelical Church Association (AIESHC). They ordained five pastors who were trained by RiverWind. Today seven churches have been started by our students, most are being pastored by our RiverWind graduates ordained by the AIESHC. These pastors have organized a network they call the Evangelical Churches of Tahuania. Together they planted a new church this year in the toughest area where there was much alcoholism and perdition. Today there is a church in that village and one of our students was sent as pastor. Each of the other seven churches have donated corrugated iron sheets for the construction of the new church building.

Thank you very much Iglesia Mt. Gretna UMC for participating with us in God’s mission called RiverWind.

Our Mission is ...

- to know Christ and make him known;
- to help people become—and grow as—followers of Christ;
- to relieve suffering, in our community and beyond, through our members’ ministries.
